“ Love you Daddy Always, I am sad and will be missing you everyday and our daddy daughter days we shared i am very glad i was able to become a successful business women and for you to be very proud to see your baby girl do well. i hope i made your time here very fun and precious with love and joy. we had some fun exciting times together. i will miss our talks and all your advice but i will never forget what you told me. and taught me about people and about life! your lessons will remain forever. it is because of you i have become very private and deal in my own affairs i love you for your lessons and life and most of all your love for GOD. you and my mother taught me all about God. and you always told me you never seen the righteous forsaken nor seed beg in bread. And you where that Righteous Man Of God your with the Lord now Daddy. Our Angel with your Wings looking down on all your Children doing very well and praising the lord as you see fit i Hope we all were an Honor to you Dad. Love you very much see you someday. agin!

God puts no more on us than we can bear, Charles knew The Word of God And Believed it, Preached it to his kids, And Prayed a That They Also Would Come To Know The Lord, Charles Had A Kind Spirit And Will Be Surely Missed, I Say To His Children And Family If You Live According To Gods Will, And Trust , Believe in God, You Will See Your Father, Brother, Uncle, And Friend Again, My Prayers Are With You, And May God Bless You

“ My thoughts and prayers goes out to my Mosley family, especially to the children, siblings, nieces and nephews. Cousin Charles was a great story teller. He could tell a story not missing a detail and would have me laughing until my face hurt. God chose another angel to watch over us.
