“ We send our heartfelt prayers to my family of Cuzzo Charles (aka Chuckie) Wells. We played on Leith Street, St.. John Street, Warren Street in Flint, MI and many other streets! Family reunions, birthday celebration, holiday eating and laughing as children then as adults we faded and moved away far from each other; the phone kept us near and up to date with our lives. We talked politics, religions, and family love! We will miss my visitations at your store and later only your house; but in my heart they will be there everlasting. I guess God and you decided not to visit with me this year as I was planning and you agreed; but God said no I am bringing my son Chuckie home! Well of course as we were always taught when God our created speaks will listen and act. So thank you God for allowing us to fellowship until the time was yours. To the rest of the family and especially Kristine "Pumpkin" Haralson-Runnels and her children; now when I travel to Flint, MI know that I will have to visit with you all, okay. Thank you children of Chuckie for caring for him with caring hearts! Love, peace, joy and happiness by faith in Jesus Christ, our Lord!
