“ A simple man with simple needs. A family man devoted to supporting and moving his family forward. A friend helping at every turn. An outdoorsman that loved to fish and hunt. A rock upon which we could all rest and take shelter. A husband to a devoted wife, a father to loving children and a Grandfathers loving way to children in need of a magnificent example. A much loved brother, uncle, cousin and friend. Oh yes, Charles asked for not a lot but his family was his treasure and he claimed it so all could know. For this humble man of faith we ask your prayers and seek the blessing of our Lord and Savior. Bless all who come this way, Bless the family and friends of all that pray for this wonderfull man. This man who loved the Lord, and served his Church moves to a different place that we cannot visit, but he will await us at its destination, arms open to embrace us and with gifts of treasure to pass down from our Savior. Amen.
