“ To my Family. Punchie was my first cousin as our moms are/were sisters (her mom is deceased, Aunt Ella). When I was young of course, I spent a lot of time with them in Flint on Wayne Street. Over the years we all lost contact. May God comfort the family during this difficult time. Prayers and Comfort in his name. Keisha Clements-Lewis

“ Hi, I'm Jackie Jones/Berry and I grew up with Cherrie (Punchy) on Wayne St. We both came from big families and childhood on Wayne St. was so much fun. I would see her throughout the years and we'd catchup. Her and my sister, Tensa, were best friends for years 'til Tensa moved away. Now my sister (3yrs.ago) and Punchy are gone. God bless the family and I send prayers to you all.

“ To The Thompson Family whom we hold dear, please know how much we love you and are praying for the your comfort. Punchie was THE one and only, she was real. We will truly miss her when we come back to Flint to visit our old neighbors from Wayne Street. As we all know time heals, our mothers and Mr. Thompson has gone on before us we were blessed to have all of them in our lives. Take care see you all soon.
