“ Mother Cheryl Cooper-Thompson, growing up as a child at New Harris Temple Church of God in Christ under Superintendent T.R. Harris, Mother Dorothy Cooper was the choir director, and she loved her children. As time progressed and we moved into our new church edifice, Harris Memorial Church of God in Christ, under the tutelage of Bishop Walter E. Bogan, Mother Cheryl Cooper and I grew more as sisters in Christ during that time. Mother Cheryl Cooper was the epitome of love, eloquence, and she always had a funny word accompanied with a smile. She was a great Woman of God that loved Skip, her family, her church family and people. She will be missed. May the mark that she made never be erased! No more pain my Mother Cheryl, no more pain. With Sincere Love, Sonia L. Pulliam (Goodlow) in Georgia!

“ Cheryl and I attended the 2022 Michigan State Homecoming in October. We shared a room at the host hotel for the MSU Black Alumnae group. As Sorors of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, we had a ball mingling with members of other Greek Fraternities and Sororities. She was a real trooper and never let on that she was having any medical discomfort. I will miss her!!!!❤️ ▲ □ 🙏🙏

“ Cheryl and I grew up in Elm Park and lived directly across the street from each other. Cheryl and the entire family attended Harris Temple faithfully every Sunday. She was such a faithful saint; always going that extra mile for family and friends. We also shared the same piano teacher, Mrs. Johnson and would be in a few recitals, together of course; Cheryl was more advanced than me and played beautifully.

I usually saw Cheryl whenever I was in Flint visiting Mrs. Addie Mae Hart who still resided in the neighbor. I also recalled seeing Cheryl in California when she attended Val (Washington) and Buddy Fykes 60/40 anniversary celebration.

May my condolences bring the Cooper family comfort and may my prayers ease your pain. Cheryl was loved by many and may she rest in eternal peace.

“ My sincere condolences to Eric (Skip) and the Cooper family. Cheryl was a neighbor, friend and sister in Christ. The Cooper and Barnett family grew up on the same street in Elm Park. We always took time to reminisce of our childhood and adult lives sharing pictures and conversations past and present. Memories will be treasured. May the family have peace and strength with God.
