“ This is kind of late but , when you first came in to Caudle's family home I was so excited to get to know you and have a big brother. I've always hoped to see you again, but not in a coffin. Thanks for all the hugs when I needed them. Teaching me how to play basketball. Helping me with homework wwhen I got frustrated. I talk about you almost everyday. When I herd you passed, I was devastated. I didn't know what to do. I have another sibling on the way and I promise you that I will do my very best to take care of him or her as you did your best with me. Rest in peace bro, love and miss you so so much Your little sis (Kiara Caudle)

“ I am so sorry to hear of Chevea's passing. I have very fond memories of Chevea. He was always respectful towards me and appreciative of whatever I did for him. During my time working with him I was fortunate to be able to have some really great talks with him, to see him make some pretty amazing changes in his life and make honest attempts to better himself in many ways. Chevea never tried to be anything other than himself - and "himself" was a true character, but deep down inside Chevea was a boy who dearly missed his mother and baby sister and who wanted to be loved, have a genuine connection with his family, and be known by many. My heart goes out to Chevea's little daughter who will miss out on the opportunity of knowing her Daddy. Rest in Peace, Chevea & I hope that somehow you know that you touched many lives & you were loved.

I am thankful for having had the opportunity to know you.

“ Our condolences go to the family of Chevea. At times such as these it is nice to reflect on the Bible. Such scriptures as Acts 24;15 and Rev 21:3,4 have help us. We hope you may find some relief in them as well. Sincerely, Wes & Karen

“ In remembrance of Chevea....when he was a little boy he loved to laugh and make others laugh. He was always very apologetic if he was found to be misbehaving. I will miss Him so much and every remembrance of His Mother Lonnie Simpson that he brought to us. Gone way to soon but will never ever be forgotten. Love you babyboy, Ne-Ne.
