“ Christine,Classy and I were Childhood friends since the 3rd grade.I had not seen her for since we move off of wood street, then I had the preasure of taking care of her in the hospital she was the same sweet person she was back then. To her family look into the hills for which cometh your help, your help will come from God and only him

“ Mrs Christine was a wonderful Mother-in-law and accepted me with open arms. She always had good advice and prayers for me. Now I pray for her children and family. Know that life is full of ups and downs but berevement is a unique happening by itself. It tends to shatter one's life. Please accept my condolences on this sad occasion. May God help you come out of grief soon.

With All my love and Prayers

“ I still cant believe that you are gone, my heart aches at the thought of knowing you are not here to give out encouraging words. You are such a beautiful person on the inside and out, the world would be a better place if more people like you were around. I know that you are up there smiling with Aunt Alice now, the suffering is over. I love you and may God bless your family.

“ Our condolences go out to you and your family. We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Often during these difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these are comforting to you.
