“ Hello family, sorry to hear about Christian, I know that your hearts are heavy right now. Just know that he's not lost, he is with the Father who loves more than you can ever imagine. We as people often find it hard to believe why God would allow family members to leave us so soon. Every one has a set time to go be with the Lord Christian finished his assignments on earth and now it's time for the family to look to Jesus and live the life that would make Christian glad that he was a part of this great and awesome family. It's time to remember everything about Christian. Ms Gwendolyn I've been where you're at, doing the same thing you are doing. I want to let you know that it does get easier. I love you and if you need anything please let me know, your cousin Gwen

“ My thoughts are with your family at this time, I am truly sorry that someone so young has been affected by the enemy of God death (1 Corinthians 15:26). This helps us to see God would never take a life as He is a God of love! (1John 4:8) Our Heavenly Father wants only the best for us now and in the future. To ensure human life would be in time able to stay eternal He allowed His Son to die on our behalf. (John 3:16) Please read Revelation to read just a few out of many blessings soon to come here on earth for all humans to benefit from.

“ Dear Gwen,
Sorry to hear about the loss of your son. The pain, the grief, and the feeling of helplessness can and may seem unbearable, but we have God's Word the Bible for comfort. At Rev 21:4 God says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away." Also, Acts 24:15 says, " there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteousness." You can find more encouraging words by going to www.jw.org.

“ My sincere sympathy to the family. Life can seem so unfair when lost so soon.
I personally have found comfort in this verse: Acts 24:15.
