“ Aunt Thelma, Family & Friends, I'm so very sorry for your loss, I am sure that Grandma and My mom, Stella & other loved ones were waiting with open arms to receive Christina. It is so difficult to understand, but we must find peace in our sweet memories & in knowing that our God is an awesome God, He holds the bigger picture and he is ultimately in control. He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. Psalms 147:3 Jesus told us, In my father's house there are many rooms, if that were not so would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? John 14:2. I am praying for your family, that you may all find peace! Much love, your cousin Sandra Szymanski Gittleson

“ I am sorry for the loss of your dear live one. Soon it will be a time where death will be done away with. In the Bible, Rev 21:4 says: " And he will wipe out every tear from there eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " With Sympathy.

“ I have had the pleasure of being Chris' co-worker and friend for almost 10years. Chris, Jamie and I used to sit together in the break room and share laughs and family stories. I appreciate all the love and support they both have shared with me over the years. I love them like my own family. Chris felt like a big sister to me. Same age as my sister. We would open up together in the mornings at Wal-Mart and clean and chat. I am so going to miss those fun times. She truly was the best lady I've ever met. I pray for her, Jamie and all the grandchildren as they will need lots is love and support from all of us. I love you Chris and hope to be with you again someday. Rest easy my friend.

“ Though Christine and I are cousins, our homes were on opposite ends of the state and we only played together a few times during our childhood. I recall one time sitting on wooden chairs under the clothes line in my parents' backyard playing with dolls. Christine's dark hair was short and her dress was white with tiny flowers on it. She was giggling so hard at something her sister, Robin, had just said that she had to bury her bare toes deep in the grass to keep from falling off the chair. That is the Christine I will always remember – the happy child with the twinkling eyes and sunny smile. I'm sure that laugh will be missed dearly. My prayers go out to her and to her family at this most difficult time.

“ It's truly not going to be a day that goes by Aunt Chris that I won't miss you. You were always so loving, caring and was just a blessing to everyone you came into contact with. You were all that I could have asked for as an Aunt and I will always be grateful that GOD sent you to be mine. From the great memories of being at your home practically making it my home away from home, to my younger years of coming to know CHRIST at El-Bethel and sharing in that joyous and blessed time. From all the great backyard barbeques and poolside conversations. Even the worst times which were helping you cope with the unexpected loss of the love of your life my Uncle Norzell (Squirrel) Badger Sr, as well as the tragic death of your only son Norzell (Zell) Badger Jr. I pray that you find peace with them in heaven. You will be remembered by so many and missed by even more. I ask that you watch over my mom, your sister from heaven and give her strength to mourn your loss of life. You are in a better place now but in our hearts your spirit will also live on. Your bright smile and contagious laugh will remain etched forever in our minds. You leave behind your Daughter Jamie but please know that she is not alone. Just as in times of sorrow before we will continue to be there for her. We will lift each other up in prayer knowing that you watching over us. All the love we had/have for you we will lavish on her and your grandchildren who have suffered such great loss. I know Aunt Chris this is not goodbye but instead I'll say I LOVE YOU AND I KNOW I WILL SEE YOU AGAIN SAVE A PLACE FOR ME!

Chris, You have welcomed me into your family, We have shared some tears, laughs and made great memories these past 6 months. I am gonna miss your smile, your laugh and most of all your presence. I know that you are up above looking down and watching over all of us that you loved and that loved you. I know that your memory will live on inside us all. Love ya

Jennifer Nordbye - April 23, 2015 at 04:10 PM

Aunt Chris, I will never forget the last thing you said to me it was I love you, I miss you and I will see you later. I want to say that I love you and miss you and some day I will see you again. Love you Aunt Chris.

Montana Achtabowski - April 23, 2015 at 04:19 PM

To the entire Achtabowski, family we are so very sorry to hear of Chris's home going. Chris and I attended the Albee Elementary School way back when. She always had a warm smile and was so friendly. Never would have dreamed that our families would one day be connected. One never knows how God would bring about such a connection of classmates as He did when my brother married Faye and to that union added some wonderful children. Yes many loved Chris, but God loved her best.
