“ This was my other Mom I use to stay with her and Cuby all the time invading their space sleeping right in the middle of them, when we lived on Baltimore and I would get mad at my Mom and call myself running away that's were I went. I remember eating starch out the box and pink gratefruit, I remember hopping around her table on a baseball bat and she told me to stop and I fell on an ashtray abd got cut abive my lip I still have the scare (hard headed) she always let me do what I wanted when I wanted, I remember her loosing her baby girl I believe it made me become even closer to her even though I am far away I always kept in touch with her and will greatly miss her I can hear her voice now saying where is that baby referring to my daughter and telling me she was going to give me back what I gave when I was little. God Bless her and keep her in your loving arms GONE BUT NEVER EVER FORGOTTEN CHRISTINE CUBA MY MOM, I LOVE AND MISS YOU MUCH.....

*To the Cuba family ... Words cannot express my sympathy in the loss of your wife, mom, aunt and sister. Mrs. Cuba always had a smile for everyone; it's what I remember most. Look to skies; keep her memories close; you'll begin to cherish those; mostly, trust that she is in heaven, for she was definitely one of His angels. Love you all ...

“ To the Cuba Family,

I was sadden to hear of the passing of Aunt Christine. Though we were related by marriage (her sister, Mary Ann was married to my Uncle, Henry Clay), she never made a difference. We were all her nieces. She was a wonderful person and had a great, fun personality. I pray that God will provide comfort to the family during this time. I am sure that you had quite a crowd to welcome you home. Aunt Christine, RIP.

“ Dear Cuba Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.
