“ To a dear friend, I'm so sorry to hear of your husband passing. I'm lost for words, but I do know that GOD will guide you through this difficult time. I remember when you got married and seeing you guys at different church functions. He was a loving friend, husband, father, uncle, brother, just a good person to know and that always spoke very highly of his wife n kids. Trust in GOD and he will see you through your darkest minutes, seconds, and hours. Stay strong and bless you.

“ Hi Coretta/Sands

I never knew your husband, but my prayers are with you and your kids. You and I chatted briefly during his illness you came forth each day during for his visitation (Faithful)wife, mother. May God Bless you and bring you comfort during this most difficult time. Remember, God will give you and your children a peace that passes all understanding. Much prayer and blessings be upon you.

“ Christopher and I worked together in the salon in the mid nineties. We worked side by side and became good friends fast. Christopher was a kind man with a good heart. I thought of him like one of my younger brothers. He will truly be missed! The beauty and barber industry have lost a true professional. My prayers and condolences are with the family, especially his children. May God be with!

“ *Roberts Family,
Words cannot even begin to express our (Williams Family) sorrow, you are all in our prayers. I am so sorry to hear about your loss. I have known Jelly since high school. He used to cut my eyebrows when I lived in Flint. He was known as the "Family Barber" because he cut my dad's, brother's, and mom's hair. Once again, I am sending my condolences, and please know that I am praying for you all.*

“ My condolences go out to the Roberts family. I want to remember my god dad as he was loving, caring , and sharing. Chris always kept me smiling no matter what was going on inside. He would give a person the shirt off his back. I hope the things he instilled in me will help me raise my son to be the man that my godfather was. He will truly be missed. Gone but never forgotten! Love you always, Tiffany & Big Dude
