Christopher DeRodrick Williams was born December 24, 1979, the son of Rosemary Dean and Roderick Williams in Flint, MI where he was raised. Chris was a loving, compassionate and caring son, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. His infectious smile, sense of humor and personality is what captured the hearts of many who knew him. He attended Flint Community Schools-Civic Park Elementary, Longfellow Middle School, and graduated from Northern High School, "Class of '98". Chris later went on to attend Mott Community College in Flint, MI where he excelled in Math and Science. He was previously employed at Meijer and General Motors in Flint, Michigan. In 1996, he was given a Proclamation for his heroic deed and leadership, along with 2 other childhood friends by the City of Flint Mayor Woodrow Stanley including a plaque by the Flint City Council after rescuing an unattended and wandering child in the community. Chris was always looking out for others and willing to help anyway he could. He loved fashion and getting "fly" with his collectable colognes, hats, sneakers, and watches. Including hobbies such as rapping, music and writing songs for himself and others. Watching judge shows, Law & Order and talking about everything from everyday life to politics with friends was some of his favorite things to do. But most importantly he took pride in his neighborhood block affectionately known as “the circle” where he formed a group of friends that lasted a lifetime. He enjoyed kicking it with friends in “the basement” a spot in his house where everyone came to enjoy music, card games, good conversation and laughs. Chris was truly a great friend and confidante to many. Christopher DeRodrick Williams leaves to cherish his loving father, Rodrick Williams of Flint, MI; and brother Nicholas Dean. “ First I'd like to send my prayers and deepest condolences to Roger, Nick and the rest of Chris's family. This has been a hard one to swallow. I hope and pray that in the coming weeks and months that a peace like no other will replace the shock, hurt and disbelief that we all are feeling now and especially his family. This one hurts bad because Chris was like one of my sons. He and KaRon have been best buddies since they were 5yrs. old and still were like that. He was so mannerable and had such a sweet spirit. I would talk to him just like I talked to my kids. I loved his smile and his whole demeanor. He will be missed by us all. This void is a big vacancy that is not refillable. I know his dad will definitely miss him. Please keep him in your prayers. RIP Chris. Tell your mom hi for me.💔😭
