“ To my dear sister Bettye Compton my prayers are with you this day and days to come. It is rough but you are a true evangelist and your faith in God will pull you through. I still cry and miss my son James, but I also smile and cherish the joyful memories we shared. I will always be a phone call away when you need an ear.

“ In loving memory of Rita,

We pray for our family to experience the promise of 2 Corinthians 1:3-5

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in ANY trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ."

“ We are involve in a worldwide work bringing a better understanding to the cause of death. My name is Leonard, and I would like to express my deepest concern for the decease family of Mrs. Golden. When we speak of the word death it may look as if we are never going to see our love ones again. (John 5;28,29), "all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice". What's comforting is that a command will be given by Jesus Christ himself, who has the power, that was given him by his father, to resurrect all our love ones who have fallen asleep in death. My reason of this letter is to those who read it and to the Golden family may have a positive viewpoint of the bible and it's promises about life and the conditions of the world, and death.(Isa.25;8). i'm please to leave with further information concerning the bible. Thank for your time.

“ What a Wonderful Friendship we had together and you will truly be missed.[God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes.” (Revelation 21:4) What kind of tears will he wipe out? Neither tears of joy nor the tears that protect our eyes. God’s promise refers to tears caused by suffering and sorrow. God will not merely dry off such tears; he will wipe them out completely by removing the causes of unwanted tears—suffering and sorrow. Love you Rita..! Lershelle Ponder-Steward and Family
