“ Clara and I would always attend the Black History events held at Flint Public Library and U of M Flint. Sometimes we would be the only ones at the event. So, we would load up our purses with food. We attended lectures from Jesse Jackson, Julian Bond, and many others. She was very proud of her African ancestry.

“ Clara and I used to attend Africa American History events at The Flint Public Library and the U of M Flint during Black History Month. Sometimes we would be the only ones there. We would take the food home. She appreciated her African ancestry. We went to hear Jessie Jackson, Julian Bond, and many others at different places. We would come out of some of those places with our purses filled with food.
