“ Grandpap, you are the reason i am the person i am today! I am going to continue to go to school and graduate to become a better woman. You always told me that education is the key to success. When my paw paw died you told me not to cry because you never know what that person is going threw because they cant show it or you cant feel it. I wish you stayed here longer but God called you to come home to him. When i want to give up i think of you, no matter what i did, or the situation you never grave up on me, and i thank you for that. I love you, and i am going to continue to strive for what i want to make YOU proud. I know that you ae looking down on me, and seeing all these changes, but just watch over me, and wish me the best. I love you, and i will see you soon, because heven is where i would be.. :-)
