“ Wow, Mr. Clarence. I learned of your passing today when I tried to call you. The response was, "Subscriber not in service." I knew something was terribly wrong.

I will miss you greatly, especially the way that you treated Annie Reece and our entire family like family. I especially remember the ribs you lovingly grilled meat on Big Bertha for everyone to enjoy and yelling up to the window for Mom to make a side dish. From my perspective, Mince Manor residents loved you. Our family loved and respected you. Thanks! Rest in Peace.

“ Clarence will definitely be missed coming to the Barbershop for his fresh haircut, he wouldn't leave without that Blues Cd, and telling that fish story the only thing about it he would bag it up with all these pictures, I use to say look Mr. Clarence drop some fish off he would laugh

It was about 3 weeks ago he stopped in and did his usual got a haircut, CD, fish story alone with the laughter and a few days later riding by Kearsley Lake there he was fishing 🎣

Clarence will be missed by us, May peace be with him!!!
