“ I am still shocked and grieved at the transition of my beloved Clarerissa. I enjoyed working with her and never had a problem from her. She would always do the best she could with what she had to work with. Never complaining, but willing to give her opinion, and that is a good thing. Sometimes she would peek in my office before going to lunch and offer to bring me lunch back. Then were times she would offer me some of hers, knowing I had got to busy to go for lunch. I will love her and respect her memory forever. Billy and Jasmine, thank you for sharing her and I thank God for honoring me to know her. My prayer is for Him to comfort you and provide you with whatever it is you stand in need of.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family. I only met Clarerissa one time when I was at the mall and Bill and Clarerissa were leaving Sears. Bill introduced me to her and she was very sweet. My heart goes out to her little girl. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
