“ Dear Family and Friends: Please accept my sincere condolences. It is very hard to lose a cherished loved one. May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring much comfort to your family, here Almighty God assures us that soon death will be "swallowed up forever and tears wiped from all faces." May this wonderful hope and your treasured memories of Ms. Jackson keep you strong and be a salve to your broken hearts (Psalm 147:3).

“ Whenever I saw Mother at church I always made my way over to get my hug. She never turned me away, but the really all she wanted to know was "where are those boys"?! Mother Jackson was sure to ALWAYS ask about my boys and if they hadn't already she would say "make sure they come see me. I got something for them". They always made their way and when they returned they had their "icecream money" in their hand. I remember one particular Sunday the boys were ushering and she called them over DURING SERVICE, not for an envelope, not for a fan but to give them their "icecream money". LOL I will miss her sylish dress and her sassiness. The mother's board in Heaven is has a wonderful new memeber. She will forever be missed.
Love and prayers,

“ Mother J..... To say I'll miss you would be an understatement. You claimed me and treated me as your own son. Your sense of humor, your culinary artistry (because you didn't JUST cook--you COOKED!), words of encouragement and all you did for me meant so much. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Psalm 116:15

“ Sorry for you loss. GOD is the Creator of life. The Bible calls God " the source of life." (Psalm 36:9; Acts 17:24 & 25) The One who gave life to all living creatures is certainly capable of restoring life to someone who has died.
