“Daddy...I can't believe that you're gone! I never thought this day would come ...to me I thought that you would be here forever..Im hurting so bad because Im without you.

As your youngest child, you definitely didnt spoil me, you inspired to set and reach my goals in life and ;et me know constantly that I could be anything that I want...

Thank you for sitting up with me after you worked 2 jobs on the weekends and watched cartoons, drank Tang and Lemon Ice Cream for breakfast..I would hear you pull up and jet to the door just to jump in your arms. Even though you would be tired you never showed it. Singing "Chestnuts over an open fire" was sung the best by you.. You def were better than Nat King Cole.. You never made me feel I was in the way when I tried to help you with whatever project you would be working on..

I could go on and on..but I have the memories of my 1st true love..The Love of My Dad..Some have come close but no winners yet in comparison!

I thank you for being my dad and showing me things in life that I probably wouldnt have ever taken notice of (i.e. birds, squirrels). Because of you I was able to experience a family with brothers and sisters, you protected me as a Dad should, provided for me and let me know that there was a parent that loved and cared about me as a parent should. Im glad that we were close as we were and Im thankful that you and Bri (B.T.) were even closer.

Daddy..this is very hard for her but Im there for her. We both miss and love you. We appreciate the love that you gave us. You were there when others we not and there is no way to repay that so I made sure that I take of you as best as possible until the circumstances changed..then I fought like hell for you because you couldnt no longer..I was more than happy to do it. I was more happy that I gave you your last and only birthday party (12/6/2011), you laughed a little in your semi state and I spoke to you on 2/5/2012 ..I was happy to hear your whispers on that day thanks to Unc, because the Devil tried to block me everyway possible, but the Devil is a liar..I love you Dad and Im lost without you. My heart is broken and Im trying to be strong, but its hard.

Thank you for not being selfish and loving me unconditionally..I never thought twice about whatever you asked me to do or needed me to do. I was more than happy to look out for you..Lord knows u definitely did for me ..I always loved your peacefulness I couldnt ask for more than the REAL man that you are..Say Hello to Granddad, Grandma, Aunt Ruby and Uncle DoDandy for me! Please wrap me in a spiritual hug..Love Always and Forever with a Broken Heart and Tears - DaNielle (Pookie/Danni)!

“ Sorry for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This shows that in the near future God will eliminate death forever.

“ When I was kid, with my radio tucked under my pillow, it was Cleodia Myles, the first Flint radio personality to inspire me to get into radio broadcasting... Ironically, my first radio job allowed me to get the opportunity to work with Cleodia who taught me quite a bit about working in radio industry...Cleodia, thanks for sharing your wisdom, and I pray that God gives your loved one the strength to make it through this trying time...
