“ This was my Grandfather, I am the son of Jason Ferguson, which was Clifford’s son with my grandmother Cecilia Bersola. I never got to meet him be we did talk on the phone a few times, My Name is Trie McDonald, I live in Yuma, AZ but my birth right name would have been Trie Ferguson. I would love to met my family given the chance.

“ To our own Sister Judith Ferguson and the entire Ferguson family First Lady Iris Coleman and myself wish to express our condolences. We pray that God will comfort you as only He can in this hour of bereavement, for He promised never to leave us, never to leave us alone. There is a song which says, Trouble don't last always, weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. We the Bethlehem family and the Coleman family are praying for you all.

May God bless& keep you

“Cliff I will miss you so much. You had such an impact on my life and my heart. I don't know if I have ever met someone as kind, caring and giving as you were. Your laugh was contagious. My sympathies go out to your wife Katie and your entire family. God bless them and help them through this difficult time.

“Katie, I'm almost a senior citizen, now. Think about all the times, we spent at the fence, talking, you me and Mother. I watched Tony, Dawn and Nikki grow up. Just think, I even babysitted Nikki & Nicole. My, how times flies. I'll miss, watching Cliff pull up next door, with Nikki in the front passenger seat and sometimes you being in the back seat. (LOL) The bottom line (The Lord) got you!! bet you never knew this: I've always admired your strenght, all these years. You remind me of my mom, with your spirit. This is just another bend in the road. Much Love Nadine
