*I send my heartfelt prayers to you and your family at this difficult time. I lost my dad in February so I know the pain that you are feeling. Just try to think of the good times that you shared and know that he is so proud of all that you have accomplished and will accomplish in the future. Take care of yourself and be encouraged. There is light after the darkness and trust it will get better.

“ Kelvin, I know it is a hard thing to go through .. losing your Dad, especially when he was so young. My own father died 20 years ago at age 55. You just have to treasure the memories you have of your Dad and know that he is at peace now. You and your family will be in my thoughts as you go through this time of loss.
