“ To the Bradley Family

I would like to express my condolence to the family at this time. When we lose a love one in death, it just seems to drain all of our energy from us. Death surely is a enemy to mankind. As survivors of the decease, we can take comfort in understanding that the Creator, who is the source of all life, can reverse these conditions that we see everyday. He has given us his word that he would eliminate death from the earth. So he has provided accounts in the bible dealing with the resurrection hope that we can draw comfort from. So I encourage you please to consider them.. Here are a few of the recorded account that you can find in your personal copy of the bible. John 11:39-44, John 5:28-29, and Revelation 21:3-4.
