“ Words are never adequate in times like these. Please know that my heart goes out to each member of the Hood Family. Someone once said, "Every man's life ends the same way. It is only the details of how he lived and how he died that distinguishes one man from another." Those details are now played out in our minds as precious memories and shared life experiences. We can never lose the experience of those we love deeply because they become a part of us. I loved Deacon (and Mother) Hood on earth; and love them now in spirt. No matter what life threw at them, they had a "living faith". They also had a type of hospitality that you could never repay... "... Well done my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of the Lord. (Matthew 25:21)”

I know he is happily reunited with Grandma Hood - they taught us what love looked like! After 93 strong years - enjoy your rest Grandad! See you on the other side.

“ Our memories of Deacon and Mother Hood are all in the category of family. Our families met in 1982 and we immediately became dear friends. Their hospitality was outstanding. We share many good times in the Lord and we weathered some storms together as well. While Deacon Hood is old enough to be my father he was more like a trusted older brother. He is a great man because he was always a kind man.
