“ I got the pleasure of meeting Clyde in 2021 when my dad passed. It was my first time visiting and a sad occasion. Clyde is married to my amazing cousin Sheila. We were welcomed to their lovely home to congregate with the rest of the family. Immediately Clyde was personable, and offered some of his delicious, homemade and varied relishes. He also showed with pride their vegetable garden. Clyde was skilled in the kitchen. He made an impression on my husband and I that will never be forgotten. I am sad to hear that we won't get another opportunity to experience his presence when we make another trip to Michigan. May God comfort Sheila, their children, grandchildren and extended families. Love Debra and Gerald Miller ❤️ 🙏 🌸!
