“ My sister-in-love. Thank you for being part of the village that raised me and set a true example of a real woman. You always kept it real with me and for that I will be forever grateful. We all prayed for your healing but we know there is healing on the other side. You understood your assignment and fought a good fight so rest in peace until we meet again. You will forever be in our hearts. Love You!!

“ I first met Connie when I visited her Aunt and Uncle with her sister Carolyn and she was quite pleasant. You could tell that family was very important to her. She was like a mother hen; even with her older sister and brothers. Connie also made the best gumbo. She will be certainly missed. I know she is resting in our Savior's arms. To the family I want you to know I am praying for you and with you. May God keep you in His care

“ I wouldn't be where I'm at today if it wasn't for Mrs. Taylor! She was my Sunday school teacher, I remember it being just us some Sundays and we would just talk and I would tell her some of my problems and she would always be there listening! I owe her so much, she is so loved and will be miss! I love you Mrs. Connie and I thank you! Praying for the entire family!

“ We shared the love of the color red and Christmas shoes ornaments but most of all Connie shared her wisdom on being a wife. Connie told me shortly after I got married, "Pick your battles, Shelia. Somethings you will have to let it go." I often had to stick up for my sister in love when she was in trouble with one of her daughters. I will miss our laughing at something or someone at our family gatherings but most of all, I'm going to miss her. Enjoy Heaven Sister in Love & Rest in Peace. Love Shelia & Willie Taylor
