“ When I learned that Mrs. Cora had passed, I wanted very much to share some words of encouragement to the family. The thought I wanted share can be found in God's Word the Bible at John 5:28, 29 28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. Jesus Christ himself reassures and promises that he will resurrect all in his memory back to life. Jesus acknowledges that he can only do this with the aid of his Heavenly Father Jehovah. Please be assured that our thoughts and prayer are with you and your family as you grieve.

“ In this tribute I would like to start off by saying God is a wonderful God. He is the head of all. His kingdom is a highly protected place that only good man and good women can enter. My aunt was a good woman and I'm pretty sure she is getting first class treatment for all the goodness she has spreaded during her lifetime. May God keep her forever.

“ May I send you my deepest sympathy at this time and say that my thoughts and prayers have been with you since I heard of the loss of your sister.

I will never forget the friendliness and kindness your sister extended to me. She was loved by all who knew her. I hope it will be of some comfort to know that you gave her all the love and care possible and that your many friends share your sorrow.

I am just a call away if you ever need anything. Please keep all those fond memories close to your heart. Peace and Blessing to each of you.

Love,

Debbie Tijani

“ May God give each of you the strength that you need. Trust Him and he will supply your every need.

Cora Lee has crossed a bridge that we all must cross someday. I pray that the sons, daughter and grandchildren will understand and know that their life is in the ALMIGHTY'S hand.
