“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that we can never get use to. In my times of sorry I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.

“ We grew up around each other, close and not meeting until we became men. And Cordell was a shining example of what a man is and should be. His passing makes me take a second look on the path that we both chose for ourselves. Family was his priority. He loved life, but he worked as hard as he played. Peace on your next journey.

“ Words are so hard to come up with, At such a shocking transition to such a wonderful person. All of his life he has cared for those who needed him..He had such a Big Caring Heart.. So I'm asking God to give the entire family the strength and Comfort them through this time that is needed in their time of bereavement. We will have our memories of the time he shared on earth." Much too Short" But God knows best, God is too wise to make a mistake. May God Bless and keep each of you, as only He can..Mother Margaret Montgomery
