“ In life there are all kinds of people, those that make you laugh, smile, scream, shout and listen to you, and you listen to them and in the end it's all about keeping it real!!!!

Mrs. Corine was very special, If you really new her you knew she loved her flowers, so one summer she put some artificial flowers in my flower pot and I screamed because I don't like artificial flowers mixed with my fresh flowers and I took them out of my pot at the Barbershop, she came to the shop talking about her flowers I told her I threw those things away - she hollered and I shouted and she never did that again lol!! But besides all that she would always call and check on me or in the summertime she would come get a haircut and we would talk for awhile winter time you ain't going to see Mrs. Corine to much It wasn't to many weeks ago she called and I never thought that would be the last time we would talk

All I no is God is a good God!!! Stay strong and no that you all are in my prayers
