Mr. Curtis William Epps, Sr. was born November 27th, 1930 in Flint, Michigan. The son of Rev. William Henry Epps and Penelope Mildred Epps. He graduated from Central High School in 1948. Curtis Epps retired from General Motors Buick Company, a division of General Motors Corporation after 48 years of service. He enjoyed bowling, fishing, playing golf with his sons and grandsons and watching Tiger Woods. Curtis was a jazz enthusiast, attending jazz concerts throughout Michigan. But most of all he loved spending time and sharing laughs with his family. Curtis was very loving and lovable, fair and good-natured as well as wise and always had words of wisdom for his family and friends. He was well known for how well he dressed and was never afraid of colors. This unique style was also evident by the vehicles he drove.

“ He said: “Take the stone away...Lord, by now he must smell, for it has been four days.” He had deliberately waited that long to make sure that his friend had died. But you might ask, why would anyone do that? Because, this was not just anyone or any friend. This was Jesus Christ. And, he was going do something for us that we could never ever do for ourselves. In the book of John chapter 11, he said: “Lazarus, come out!” And, he did. Then Jesus said to unwrap him let him go. But, how does that affect you and I after our loss of loved ones? Well, let’s read on in John chapter 11. In verses 25 and 26 Jesus explains this: “Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; 26 and everyone who is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?” A question to you family is: Do you believe Jesus? Another one is, how do you: “exercise faith” in Jesus? Still another question is: Who is it that will never die at all? To learn the Biblical answers to those questions our savior raised, please go to JW.org.

“ Deacon Curtis and Valerie Willaims send our deepest heartfelt sympathy, love and prayers, to the Epps enite family. Pop Epps will truly be missed, and so will his melodlift, singing voice. I know he is now singing in the Heavenly Choir. Pop is now resting in Jesus Arms. Continue to lift up your eyes to the hills for whence cometh your help. For your help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. Psalm 121:1-2
