“ To the Berry & Culbreath Family,

What started years ago as a business relationship at work between Cynthia and me quickly became a warm friendship and sisterhood (the big sister I never had). It was a privilege and pleasure to have known her so well, and I will never forget her thoughtfulness, kindness, inspiration, trips and our laughs together.

I pray God will comfort you, and send Angels from above, giving sweet peace within your heart, surrounding you with Eternal Love. I am sorry for your deep loss. You all are in my/our thoughts and prayers, as we grieve and rejoice her home coming with you today with our Heartfelt Sympathy. Fore Cynthia is a thousand winds that blow; a diamond's glint on snow; the sunlight on ripened grain; the gentle autumn's rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush, she's the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds circled in flight. She's the soft star that shines at night.

Sincerely,

Alison Horne

“ Hi Mom, I would like to say that I love you and you will forever be missed..You were and are the BESTEST Mom EVER!!! You are a part of God's Garden now:

God looked around his garden and found an empty space. He then looked down upon earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's Garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best! He knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain, He knew that you never get well on this earth again. He saw the road getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb, so He gently closed your weary eyelids, and whispered "Peace be thine." It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home!!!!

“ To The Family: I will always remember "Shaggy". Her smile was genuine and her sense of humor always made others laugh. She was that ray of sunshine in a cloudy room. May it comfort your hearts to know that she is in eternal peace. May God keep all of you in his care.

“ I am just hearing about this and I am at a loss for words. I met Cynthia when I was in the third grade and we attended school for three years together. We maintained a mutual friend (Veronica Bolden) and we saw each other from time to time through the years. I found out years later we had a mutual cousin in Ricardo Grey. Cynthia was a lot of fun and a joy to be around. My condolences to her children and family.

Peace and Blessings,
