“ I still can't wrap my head around this. Briggs, no matter how bad of a day I'm having...you were always there to make me laugh. You made work so easy and fun. I remember when I first transferred to SRF...you were one of the first officers I met and you were so welcoming and funny and nice. You made sure my transition was a smooth one and I thank you for that. I'm sui glad I came to celebrate your transfer to TCF with you. I was in the bed with a migraine and you made me get up, get out, and come celebrate with you. I'm so glad I did. You will truly be missed. You were a wonderful, phenomenal woman and friend. “ Wow! still in awe and disbelief of the loss of a friend, roommate/classmate at the MDOC Academy, and coworker. God has a purpose in placing people in our lives. The laughter, the advice, the fun-times/bad-times, our smiles, and our testimonies we share leaves an impact on others. I know Cynthia took a glimpse of heaven and said never mind to this world..... Just wanted to say to the entire Briggs family and all those who are connected..... That "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." Psalms 46:1..... "Finally, brethren, farewell. Become complete. Be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. 2 Corinthians 13:11

“ *To the Family of Ms. Cynthia Briggs,
During this time of difficulty, may the family find comfort through God's Word the Bible. Within its many pages you will no doubt find encouragement, hope and comfort. The scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 gives the promise that in the near future, we will no longer have to shed tears of sorrow because of losing a loved one in death. Therefore, I encourage you to look to God's word for comfort during this time for distress, you can visit www.jw.org for more information about what the Bible teaches regarding death. My condolences are with the Family of Ms. Cynthia Briggs*

“ It's hard to put together words to describe what I am feeling. It's hard to focus when your heart is heavy. Briggs will be missed by all. During her time here she touched many hearts. GOD used her and called her home and HE is telling her, "well done my good and faithful servant". She was a very good officer and even a better friend. I will always remember her words of courage and advice and her heart of gold. My heart and prayers goes out to the family. GOD does not make mistakes!

Our path crossed again at TCF and that encounter resulted in numerous phone conversations. I count it a pleasure to have known such a wonderful person as Cynthia Lynn Briggs. “ We are sorry for your loss. Cynthia, was such a great person, she will live on in our memories forever. As an Officer, Cynthia knew what her obligation was. She was devoted to making her community a better and safer place for everyone to live. She volunteered to run programs at work when others neglected to help out. She went out of her way to make sure that everybody was judged fairly. Cynthia was a pillar of her community and most important she was a great humanitarian. Cynthia Briggs was a person of rare quality. She stood for what was right when others had backed down. She brought laughter and humor into the lives of the people around her. In a place where darkness often reigns supreme, she brought an energetic light.

Cynthia will be missed, but I believe she has her place in paradise.

“Cynthia touched the lives of many at our workplace. Her sense of humor and great smile could cheer you up even on the worse day. She brought a kind spirit and sense of adventure into an otherwise darkened den of captivity. We worked together; laughed together; and sometimes we liked to fight together! But at the end of the day, we loved each other and lifted up the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. My most sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family.”

“ To the family of Cynthia Briggs, I know words can't express how you are feeling at this time. Cindy is resting with our Lord & Savior and looking down on you all, protecting you at all times. Briggs was a sweet person who was a listener and had a caring heart. She will truly be missed by all that knew and loved her and her presence shall live on through hearts of us all. Know that when God calls us home he says our mission on Earth is complete and we must rest in the patures of his embrace and complete our mission in Heaven. Praying for you all to get through this trying time. God Bless you all, in Jesus name. Amen!
