“ I was sadden to hear that a former student of mine was gone, I could not believe it. I remember D'Shon to be a very loving and caring student. I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. I know that no words will ever make this situation easier but please try to remember that he is now in the loving arms of our father.

“ D'Shon Wright was a rare student. He was an awesome dancer, music lover. D'Shon was charming, funny, THE QUICKEST TO LEARN, handsome, class leader (in a positive way), clever, sweet, gentle, Christian and a TRULY KIND AND GOOD PERSON.

I was so sad when I read about him in the paper. I read it and reread it. Mr. Wright, your words were true and heart felt.

Why would THIS happen to one of the best people I ever met? I wondered why God didn't take some of those knuckleheaded kids- the ones that are always a mess and getting into everything. Then, I thought D'Shon was the best guy and such an awesome helper. God needs his help with something very important.

My prayers and thoughts are with you during this time. Please know that you raised one super person. He was a blessing in my life. Teachers are not supposed to have favorites but he was one of my favorites... he was everything a teacher could want in a classroom! You did a beautiful job.

*Sincerely,
Susan Fischer*

“ just to think I spoke to you the other day Sad to say my father took you away. I will always have the memories that we shared keeping you in line and you knowing that I will always be there. I love you dear and auntie always will now you are in better hands.

Your mother and the angels seem to say it is time for their angel to come home to stay.. so tell my sister I will see her one day give her an hug and kiss from me as we send you both on your way. I lost your mother now you my dear. but I will never loose the love I have for you and always will...
