“ I had the pleasure of knowing Dra a while and he was a nice young man. Dra and his friends helped me do yard work, or just hung out at my house and kept my company they were like another set of nephews to me and they all called me "Auntie". Dra was such a respectful person, funny, full of jokes all of the time -- never a dull moment. To his family I am terribly sorry for your loss his life was cut short much too soon but it was a joy to have known him. My prayers and sympathy to your family.
