“ Dee-Dee was a beautiful young lady whom I am blessed to be your first cousin. You will be missed by all of us. I have lost someone very dear to me and it hurts to know that you are gone so soon. Although I have not been around you that much and I wish that I would have, but it's still very hard for me and the family right now. You were such a beautiful, intelligent, hilarious, energetic and full of joy. I will always remember that funny laugh of yours and that smile that lit up any room you walked in. I will keep Markies, Aunt Joyce, John (Buster) Shaunte, Lisa and the rest of the family lifted up in prayer. I love you and I will see you in Heaven. R.I.P.

TIME IS A GIFT FROM GOD. SPEND IT WISELY. I enjoyed reminiscing with my niece the day before she was called home. She was at peace with her life. She only wanted to finish the school year with her babies. She wasn't granted that wish, but her babies know that she love them. She is and will always be loved by many people from the US to Korea. REST IN HEAVEN SWEET NIECE !
