“ My uncle Danny always was cool and gentle when he was around us. Nothing phases him and nothing we did would surprise him. I loved your style, appearance, style and composure. I will also remember your motto "No matter how long it takes you to get what you want don't let it hinder you" Go for it.

No one can ever take your place. Your image in my heart will never be erased. My mind is still sad but my heart is filled with love. I love you uncle Danny you meant the world to me.

I pray that my mom will be comforted by knowing her best friend and brother is at peace.

“ Dan was a great friend of my father Dick adams. I had the pleasure of knowing dan at an early age because i was always at the saturn store he and my dad worked at. Dan was a great guy and a great golfer he taught me many things not just on the course but in life. He was an inspiration to everyone and im so happy i was able to know such a wonderful person such as Dan davis. sincerely, Justin adams

“ Dan will be greatly missed! I had the privilege of working with Dan over the years on several Saturn marketing events in the community. We worked together on two charity golf tournaments, a 5k run, and a promotion with the RDV fitness club where he was a member. Dan was always so helpful with strategizing. He was a deep thinker. Dan would drop by my office regularly and we'd talk about work, but inevitably end up discussing books he was reading, philosophy, religion, history and so much more. He was so intelligent. During a tough time when my husband was very ill, Dan listened and cared. I remember one time Dan told me about his early days when he worked in the clothing business. He shared memories of great window displays and advertising that he did. Then one day he surprised me when he brought in some of his old newspaper ads to show me. In his humble, nonchalant way he shared something that he was so proud of. I recall him saying that the key to a good suit (or any outfit) is choosing the shoes first. You always choose good shoes and then the clothes, not the other way around. Dan was always happy-go-lucky as he walked around the car lot and his unique humor made customers and co-workers feel at ease. He always genuinely had a customer's best interest at heart. He would remark "the math has to work out?". Dan's passing is a great loss to everyone. His desk in the showroom will forever bring great memories of how he touched each of our lives here at Saturn. God bless his family during this difficult time. You are in my prayers.

“ Our deepest sypathies go out to the family of Dan Davis. He will truely be missed by many. I have had the pleasure to work with Dan for the last few years and he was a true friend. He always made the time to stop and talk for a while and to ask about my children and Tracy and how they were doing. Dan was a caring and loving man with lots of ideas and an interesting sense of humor. I will miss the gentleman side bets that we would would have every year when Michigan and Ohio State would play. He was one of the biggest Michigan fans I have ever met. God is aquiring one of the greatest. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Dan and all his family and friends. We'll miss you buddy.
