“ Darian was one of the happiest guys I have had the pleasure to serve as he was rarely in a bad mood. He had the most infectious smile and his eyes just sparkled. He had his mother's eyes and smile.

It was also my extreme pleasure to know his mother. Karen was always there for her son. She visited often and took Darian out on the town to eat and shop.

When I went to tell him his mother was coming to visit his eyes would light up and he's stand at the window often until she arrived. God bless Darian and give him peace. Karen-you are in my thoughts and prayers as I can only share in your grief.
