“ To The Wilburn Family:

Sincere condolences to you! Daryl will truly be missed in the neighborhood by my grands &! They'd always catch him walking to the store & say my granny want you. He'd say, no she don't! But he'd come & of course, they wanted to go to the store with him! Lol He'd take them and buy them something. Just so caring,.....

Thanks for painting the inside of my home, too. Glad I was able to give you those 'couple $$$ when you ask'd. You never ask'd for much. Glad I had the chance to show my appreciation for you, while you were living!!!

“ *Dearest Wilburn Family,
Please accept my deepest sympathies toward your family at this time.
Losing a loved one is so painful, and I hope that your memories will keep you comforted. Thankfully we have the ransom sacrifice of Jesus that opens the way for life eternally and the end of all sickness and death. John 3:16 is a comforting reminder that all promises will be fulfilled including Isaiah 25:8.*

“ May God grant the entire Wilburn family a peace that passes all understanding. These are times when God says " rest my child, rest I'll comfort your family, I'll wipe the tears from their eyes, yes they are hurt and sad, but I gave them a promise to never leave them nor forsake them". My prayer are with you (my second family) neighbors across the street from years ago. Prayers and more prayers!
