“ Today is Memorial Day and it’s a holiday people usually gather to honor the people who are no longer here with us. I thank God I don’t feel the emptiness of your absence. I feel you in my spirit every day of my life. You left me physically but spiritually you are here by my side every day. I miss you so much it hurts but I know that sometimes we are going to lose those we love. I’m grateful I had you in my life at all. You struggled so bad when you were born , but you fought through. Know that I love you with a love that is so infinite, so strong, so Pure that I know God is looking over you. Love you forever.

“ My heart is heavy today. Two years have passed with you not here in physical form, you are always with me spiritually. I will never make peace with your absence from my life, but I do trust God. Know that you are never ever forgotten and I love you more every day. I hope you found your peace in the kingdom of the lord, our father in heaven. Know that you will never ever be forgotten and I miss you more than I could ever put in words. Rest peacefully my beautiful boy.

I'm trying to adjust to a world that you're not in and it feels impossible. My heart hurts literally. Not seeing your face or hearing your voice, feels like the ultimate pain. I'm going to keep trying. God has a purpose for me and I have to keep your spirit alive. Nobody knew you like me. It's apart of being a mother. I hope I see you again one day, when God calls me home. Just know I will love and miss you for the rest of my life. 💙*

“ To the Skinner Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*

“ DaShawn was always DaShawn there was nothing phoney or fake about him. He was one of the most real and genuine people I know whether it be for good or not. He had his own rhythm in life that he followed and I know that God was with him every step of the way. I pray that DaShawn is at peace and everyone that ever truly loved DaShawn will celebrate the life he had here.
