“ Me and david was very good friends he and mom, sister lived across the street in beecher. I was the white kid he taught how to break dance we would spend hours listening to music and making music. He would beat those moves in me. He was a great friend and I loved his momas cooking. His house always smelled like dinner. In till we meet again my friend RIH!

“ Growing up I loved having a giant brother with muscles, who loved king fu, taught me how to dance, and made me love drawing for a lifetime. You let me steer the escort sitting on your lap to my kindergarten class!!! I never said a word to mom or dad either. I never understood the sacrifice you ALL made taking in us 3 kids, until I grew up... I try to repay you all everyday by helping anyone God sends my way.

You were a great big brother to an abandoned little boy. Rest up Big Dave, when I see you again I definitely want to hear you sing it :)

“He’s a macaroni...with the scent of cheddar cheese” lol who scars a little boy like that! I love you Bro.
