“ My family (Simon Family), have been friends with the Deceased and his family for many years. I have known David and grew up with his family since school days. His mother & my mother were very good friends. His mom did my hair as a young girl back in the day, when the family lived on Eighth Street. David will be very missed and remembered much by our family. May Gods blessings continue to flow out to the Miller & Harmon family.

“ When I was a child, every Saturday whether it was raining or snowing, I would look out the window and see David and his brothers, Duane and Lavern walking down Stanford Street going to see Mrs. Miller, their grandmother, and their cousins, the Reaves family. The Millers were always a close net family. My heart cries for David?s family for their loss.

David always had a beautiful smile on his face that matched his charming personality. I know he fought a long battle, because he loved living, but now is at peace with God.

God Bless the Miller family during this time of sorrow.

“ To the family of David T:

David and I shared a lot of laughs over the years, especially during the days when we both lived in Detroit. I am so glad that we got the opportunity to speak a few months ago. I am sure that he is at peace. He had a fantastic personality and we were able to reminisce about 'old times.' I will continue to pray for all of you. God Bless.

“ Duane and family, May God comfort you during this most difficult time. Let him carry through and he will lighten your grief. Remember as you grieve, that everybody does it differently. So don't let others dictate your grieving time. Rest in the LORD's Hand as he comforts you.

Soory I couldn't be there, I had a doctor's appointment at 10 AM that lasted longer than expected.

Still praying for you, your mother and family.
