“ Hey Dave, miss you already! I sent you a basket of snacks for your journey home. For all those times you called me from the car, to bring you something sweet. Candy, pizza and some grapes were on top of the list!

I'm remembering those early Saturday morning rides with the southern summer sun on our face. Talking about the old days and the fun we all had growing up in Flint! You can rest now, and be at peace, and I know your strong faith carried you through to the other side.

So, miss my best friend, I did not forget to get you some candy for your journey home.

P.S. Sorry I ate your grapes and took a bite of your pizza!

Luv Fox!

“ To the Prince Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
