“ To the Kirksey Family: There's is so little one can do, so little one can say to bring you consolation in the loss that's come your way...but may it help you at this time and bring some comfort, too, to know that others truly care and share your grief with you. With deepest sympathy.

“ *Russell,
So sorry to hear of your brother's passing, but rejoicing in the fact that he has gone home to be with the Lord. I took comfort in seeing you at both of my in-laws homegoing services at Mt. Olive...though I can't be there in person, please know that you are in my prayers and thoughts.*

“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ Praise God, sometimes death is a blessing and indeed it was so. I thank God that my uncle doesn't have to suffer anymore. He is not in any pain. I know that before he transitioned, his life and salvation was intact. We have good memories and visits to recall every time we think of you. How funny you were and kind-hearted to me & my sons. Thank you for all the help you've given me. We all will miss you Uncle Wayne. You have earned your rest from this weary world. We are saddened but we rejoice because we know you are with Jesus and our grandparents and other relatives and friends that have gone on before us. Ps 107:8 Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! To my family, be comforted and strengthened in Jesus. All is well. Stay encouraged for our help comes from the Lord. He is ever present and able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us.
