considered him a friend. He loved his son , and wanted a betterlife for him than he had himself.*

May he rest in piece and may all of his demons be put to rest.

“ Deborah, my prayers are with you and your family in your time of need. Hang in there and always remember that God is in control and He is able. There are no words to express my sympathy, but hopefully knowing that myself and others care about you and are concerned about you will be of some comfort. You are a special person and I pray that God will continue to comfort you and your family. God Bless you and keep you,
Love, Belinda Ross.

“ Dear Deborah,

My family and I would like to express our most heartfelt sympathy in the loss of your son.

My heart truly goes out to you as a Mother who has been in your place just two and a half years ago.

Only The Lord and time can ease the weight on your heart, but even this takes time.

I will continue to pray for you and your family.

Sincerely,

Debbie Caldwell-Thompson & Family
