“ To Mamie, Lomax, Samone and the rest of the family, I would like to express my deepest sympathy during these hard times. Daymond was a very sweet & silly person and will be missed a great deal. Especially that little slick smile he had! But do know that God does not put more on us than we can bear and that it may seem cloudy today but the sun will shine again. It just takes time and faith to pull you through. I said a prayer today and asked God to bless you all and pull you through. May he do just that, take care.
