“ To the Family,

We regret that we cannot be present with you at Uncle O.D.'s homegoing celebration. I trust that you will reflect on the many good times and joys that you shared with him. Please know that we will be with you in spirit.

It certainly makes me smile when I think of him. My fondest memory was a trip that he made to Memphis in 1956. He had a brand new Pontiac that looked like an airplane. I thought that he was really cool.

Please know that all of you are in our prayers. Things may look a little cloudy now, but the sun will shine again soon . . . you'll see.

“ Why do we mourn departed love ones or share at death's alarm?

*This is but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to His arms.*

*My dad is just another soldier gone
To get the great reward,
He fought the fight; he kept the faith
and now is home with God!*

My dad, my husband and I had many telephone conversations over the past few years. And no matter where they started they always ended with us talking about God.

I know my dad is in Heaven, singing in that Heavenly Choir; and there is no greater peace of mind than that.

*Love,
