“ As you Honor Father Feimster...

"When a father leaves so many happy yesterdays, his love will last through all of your tomorrows." May it bring you comfort to know that nothing can diminish the wonderful ways your father touched your life... The love and memories you share will remain with you forever.

I pray this note brings you comfort:

Let There Be Memories Let there be memoies--fond recollections of special occasions and everyday things. Let your heart start on its journey to healing by feeling the comfort remembering brings. Let there be memories--pictures, mementos, and favorite stories both funny and sad. Let your mind wander the paths of remembrance, reliving the joys and the good times you've had. Let there be memories--signs that our loved ones remain near in spirit long after they're gone...tender, surprising, heartwarming, and welcome--sweet proof of the promise that love will live on.

May awrm memories surround you and bring you comfort.

With Deepest Sympathy,

Love Kimberly

“ I met Brother Johnny at New Testament in the early 1980s. He was a great guy. He would give you the shirt off his back. That was a time of my early introduction to Christ. And him, Freddie Mae Baldwin, and my mother-in-law Azzie Lee Boone. Along with Rev Riley were very inspirational in my Christian life. Brother Johnny was a true deacon, because he was a servant of God, and to God's people. To the family thank you for sharing him with the world!
