“ Godmother, I love you very much and I am praying for you and your family. Godfather will be dearly missed, but we take assurance in the fact that he made his calling and election sure. Please do not hesitate to contact me anytime. Ken and I are only a phone call away. Love you, always.

“ Godmother, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I really love you and I am praying that God will strengthen you at this time. Godfather was more than a godfather to me. He was like a grandfather to me. Besides my parents, you and he were main two examples of Godliness, love and stability in my life. I am so happy that Godfather was saved. In my spirit I can hear him praying. When I was little and stayed over your house we always said our prayers together, and God would lead them in his strong, confident voice. He knew the God of his salvation, and he exemplified that in his walk with Christ.

Again, I love you dearly. And please be encouraged in knowing that "when we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be."

Myself, as well as Elder Stroble, Ezekiel, Enoch and Elianna are praying for daily.
