“ I will never forget our last conversation which was 2 weeks ago. I encouraged you and made you laugh, you had gotten off the phone feeling a little better. I was off from work for 2 weeks. As I came into work this morning seeing funeral home arrangements on the table about you hurt me badly. I used to always call you "rich lady" haha...I pray that God gives this family strength and comfort during this difficult time. Ms.
Deanna was such a sweet young lady

Deanna will be greatly missed she and I went to Flint Academy together and Skill center we later became Registered Nurses and co workers... God allowed our paths to cross again later in life as we both continued our careers taking care of others and we also had a lot of laughs and great talks during our shifts.

May she rest in peace 🌹🌸🌹🌸

You have gained your eternal wings 🙏🙏

“ To the Cole family:

Deanna and I graduated together. We were friends through high school, and then over the past couple of years got back in touch through FB. I'm so sorry for your loss. Deanna was such a great person. She had a big heart, and a huge smile! I know you will miss her terribly. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.
