Ms. Deborah Diane Coleman "Mickey" was born March 4, 1962 in Blytheville, Arkansas, the daughter of Willie Lee and Josephine Coleman. She was introduced to church at an early age attending Nehemiah Temple Church Of God In Christ in Blytheville, AR under the leadership of the late Elder John Moore. Deborah attended church on a regular basis, her faith never wavered knowing that God was the author and finisher of her faith. When Deborah visited House of Prayer Missionary Baptist Church, she found unconditional love and peace. These things are the epitome of what she stood for; therefore she was moved to join House of Prayer under the leadership of Pastor Kenneth L. Stewart. She remained rooted in her strong foundation until God called her home. Deborah was a 1980 graduate of Blytheville Senior High School. She received a degree in Interpretation in American Sign Language for the Deaf at Mott Community College. Deborah was employed at Wal-Mart on Corunna Rd. for 15 years, Shell Service Station on Corunna Rd., Mr. B's on Dupont St. and Stewart for several years and she managed Cathay's Custom Millinery on Dort Hwy. from 1984-1987. She had a passion for caring for her mother, going above the call of duty to visit and care for her every day. It was part of her lunch break ritual to check on her mom EVERYDAY! Deborah loved her children, family and an utmost love for her grandchild. She was a loving person and never met a stranger. Anyone she met loved her and left an everlasting impression was bestowed on them both. Deborah loved bringing joy and happiness to any room she entered. Her trademark was to bring and show love and laughter to all whose paths she crossed.

Ms. Deborah Diane Coleman leaves to cherish her memory: 2 sons, Travis Nesby (Rachael Jackson) of Bradenton, FL and Keenen Deon Coleman (Jasmine Adams) of Flint; step-daughter, Junika Jefferson of Flint; grandson, Kyrell Dieon Coleman of Port Arthur, TX; 2 god-children, Mikaela Tartt and Lashonda Dukes, both of Flint; mother, Josephine Coleman; 7 sisters, Ethel (James) Robinson of Moundville, AL, Brenda (Anthony) McClain, Sandra (Cecil) Mitchell, all of Blytheville, AR, Dorothy Dorsett, Velma Mizell, Terri (Don) Lewis and Bonita Tellis, all of Flint; 5 brothers, Richard (Charlene) Coleman, Willie (Valerie) Coleman, both of Blytheville, AR, Eddie (Helen) Coleman, Clyde (Elizabeth) Coleman, all of Flint and Ronald (Beverly) Coleman of Greensboro, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and other relatives too numerous to name including special cousins, Stella L. (Cleo) Gragg of Atlanta, GA and Lonnie B. McIntosh of Mexico; special friends, Charles Doyle, Charles Bauer, Johnson Jay Kennedy III, Ida Starling, Gwen Banyard, Therese Corder, Faye McCollum and the extended Wal-Mart Family.

“ *To The Coleman Family,
My thoughts and prayers are with you in your deepest time of need.
For a healed heart and strength it is to GOD, I pray for you and plead.
Just know that if you seek GOD, again Deb's face you will surely see.
Standing at HEAVEN's gate waiting to greet you is where she will be.
And although it seems tough to think of being without her, to think of being apart.
Just remember all the great things about her and she will always live on within your heart.
She is now free of all suffering, any hurt or agony.
She is now one of GOD's angels and watching over you is what her task will be.
She has went on before you to prepare for you a space.
In GOD our father's kingdom, know she now rests in a beautiful place.*

I worked with Deb and came to know her as the Loving and Careing person that she was. She was a GOD fearing woman that truly loved her family. She was a proud mother and grandmother and a tentative daughter, a woman who would do anything for her family and for those she called her friends. I feel truly Blessed to have known her. Please know that weeping may endure for a night, but JOY comes in the morning. I am praying for your healing and your breakthrough.

She was so proud of her sons and always showed that video on her phone of her and her grandson she was happy to be a granny. But most of all she loved taking care of her mom she always told me something funny that her mom said or did and we would be cracking up in the back room I'm gone miss Deb May God comfort the family and guide them threw this in their time of need.*

She always had a smile and a hug for me, that was apart of my routine. She always took time to catch up with me, she was so proud of Travis and Keenan. I am truly going to miss her. From the Carter Family, (coach carter) Sad is the days of our losses. Love and joy in each day we wake and see each other. We will wake in the Heavens and see each other once again. Our hearts pains for the family of Deb Coleman, espeacially for Keenan and Travis. A mom could not be any prouder of her sons. She made them independent for gods plan and reasonings,that we did not understand at the time. Now at this time of loss it is a little easier to understand, but the pain and hurt is not easier. I pray daily for keenan, as he made his momma proud with a new grandson and his college efforts. Aspeacial prayer for him as the losses he has viewed in the last two years are devastating, Keenan lost his best friend (Kadeem K. Carter) and now his mother, and his sister long before. yet i pray for him and his brother to continue to make his moma proud. She will be in his corner always. .
