“ Happy birthday mama! You have left me psychically now 13 years ago and I need you to know that I've missed all those 13 yrs. Ma today I kept myself busy at work running around everywhere so I didn't get in my feelings but once I came home I sat down and could not stop thinking of you. I cried I laughed and smiled of the memories of you. Mama I know you're in the best place ever the best hands ever I just miss you sooo much. Ma I look just like you sound like you I'm your Minnie me 😂😂 I'm gonna have to go throw my balls for you your grandkids called to check on me and they shared some wonderful memories about you. Quan said he was at the bowling alley and he bowled a 211 I told him your smiling down at him you taught him well mama you taught us all well and were very very grateful to have had you as our mother beautiful lady! Love you always and forever mama!

“ To the McClendon family: To comfort you in the loss of your loved one. When you lose your dearest loved one, one of the most treasured possessions you have is a heart full of loving memories. May it help to know that you are in the thoughts of others who care. She will be truly missed. With deepest sympathy and heartfelt understanding, may God be the glory.

“ In times like these, you need a Savior, know that the God we serve will supply all of your needs. Pastor Terry Randolph and the Gethsemane MBC, 1258 E Humphrey Ave, Flint, Mi 48505 would like for the the family of Sis McClendon to know that we were physically saddened by her passing but spiritually elated to know that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We are praying with you and standing by to be of assistance in whatever way we can. May God continue to bless and keep each of you is our prayer.
